English Translation

O! Merciful and Compassionate Lord! O Forgiver of sins!

I accept, think, speak and practice the pure religion in accordance with Your Command, Order and bidding.

I am steadfast upon performing every meritorious deed and I return having repented from all sinful acts.

I keep pure my personal conduct, having abstained from wicked deeds, the six powers of my soul which are the power of thought, the power of speech, the power of action, the power of logic discriminating good and evil, intelligence and wisdom.
